CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Josiah's Covenant seeks to create a safe place for teenage orphan girls to come into a family. With this in mind we have certain standards in place. The following questions are aimed at assessing where each intern applicant is with their alignment toward this safe place. Answering "Yes" to any of these questions will not automatically remove your application, but you will be expected to refrain from certain behaviors during your time with us and in regards to addiction be willing to walk through a plan of freedom. We don't want to encourage you to lie to get accepted; our higher goal is honesty and willingness to follow the plan of safety for all involved. All answers will be kept with confidence and only known by the appropriate leaders within Josiah's Covenant. In regards of dishonesty and lack of being teachable to leadership, your internship may be cut short. We believe in you and know you can have a successful internship.

Along with these questions, we will be performing a background check on all applicants for the safety of the girls. This is the reason for the first question.
